

“POLAR BEAR DANCE PARTY”

Up in the land of ice and snow,
All the polar bears shout out hello.
“It's time to dance, let's clap and cheer.
Our Christmas party night is finally here!”

Stomp, stomp, stomp, clap, clap, clap,
Every polar bear goes tap-tap-tap.
They sing and spin in the snowy air.
It's Christmas party fun for all the bears!
Stomp, stomp, stomp, clap, clap, clap.

The igloos are shining far and wide,
There's lots of candy fish piled up inside.
Call your friends, they're all invited too.
So come on in and dance, till your face turns blue!

Spin yourself around and be sure to stomp the ground.
Open up your ears and you'll hear a jolly sound.

See the polar bears in their Christmas suits of red,
Each of them wears a Christmas hat upon their head!

The Christmas lights are bright, the Christmas music's loud.
Let's bring the dancing penguins in, we'd love to have a crowd.
An Eskimo sings with the band and really makes it hop.
And as long as you keep dancing, the band will never stop

Stomp, stomp, stomp, clap, clap, clap.
Every polar bear goes tap-tap-tap.
Let's sing and dance in the snowy air.
It's Christmas party fun for you,
your friends and all the polar bears!
